

Liverpool Elks Lodge #2348 recently celebrated their 53rd anniversary. New York State Elks Association President Brian Greene joined in the festivities. At a dinner in his honor awards were given to outstanding police and firefighters that serve the members of the lodge.

Chief Charlie Eastman of Seneca River Volunteer Fire Department, was present to honor the award winner from his departments. Fire Chief Tony Albanese was recognized for 40 years of service. Pictured L to R: Brian Greene, NYSEA President, Tony Albanese, James Humphrey, ER., and Chief Charlie Eastman.

Sheila McCallum
Public Relations Chairman
315-451-2256 (H) 315-439-0403 ©
Rsmccallum1@gmail.com